Statement from COBA President Benny Boscio on the Shooting of Two Off Duty Correction Officers

"At approximately 1:30AM today, two of New York City's Boldest, who were off duty and attending a party, were shot by an assailant, who remains at large. It appears they were innocent bystanders and were not the intended target. The shooting occurred at a nightclub in Richmond Hill, Queens. One officer sustained injuries to his hand and is undergoing surgery and the other officer was shot in the leg. COBA will do everything we can to assist our officers during this time. We pray for their speedy recoveries and ask the public to assist the NYPD with this ongoing investigation by calling Crime Stoppers at 1-800-577-TIPS."
