STATEMENT FROM COBA PRESIDENT ELIAS HUSAMUDEEN ON THE PASSING OF CORRECTION OFFICER RICHARD LUE

"Today, one of the best of NYC's Boldest, Correction Officer Richard Lue, assigned to RNDC on Rikers Island, who was involved in a horrific car accident several days ago, succumbed to his injuries and passed away at St. Barnabas Hospital. He was well liked by his fellow officers and just beginning a very promising career with the New York City Department of Correction. His light will shine forever in our hearts. On behalf of the COBA Executive Board, the Delegate Body, and every single Correction Officer, we send our deepest sympathies to the Lue family. We will never leave their side."
