Statement from COBA President Elias Husamudeen on the Passing of Correction Officer Quinsey Simpson, The First Correction Officer, to Die from COVID-19!

"Correction Officer Simpson served our Department with dignity and honor for nearly twenty years. He embodied the very best qualities of New York City's Boldest and was extremely well-liked by his fellow officers. His tragic death from this invisible disease has left our hearts broken. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family during this difficult time."
